Deck the Halls

This week the 2 year olds have been getting into the holiday spirit. We spent the week talking about winter and making lots of different winter crafts for our up coming concert. As you walk down the hall take a look outside your child's classroom—the bulletin boards are filled with mittens, ornaments, snowmen and Christmas trees. All of them covered with a coat of festive glitter! We have also been hard at work learning and practicing our concert songs. I'm sure some of you might be dying to find out what it is your child has been singing all week but we will not be sending the words to these songs home so as not to ruin the surprise.

With two more weeks of practice though, I'm sure you will be able to stand up at the concert and sing along!

Updates and Reminders:

- Narratives go home today. These reports are a personalized summary of your child's progress in their 2 year old class. If you would like this valuable information translated you may talk to your child's classroom paraprofessionals to set up a time to meet with them (after 1:30 is best). If you have any questions regarding your child's narrative please feel free to ask us.
- The two year old teachers would like to ask that you dress your child in athletic shoes or keep a pair of athletic shoes in his/her cubby throughout the week. As we do lots of running, jumping, climbing and moving this would make it easier for everyone to safely participate.
- Concert Attire— On the day of the concert please dress your child in
