QSI's Main Campus Newsletter
Volume 29: April 22, 2011

Thank You, Mr. Heeg

Mr. Heeg has been teaching at QSI Shekou for almost four years. He sees many students for computer classes and besides this he teaches mathematics and IE Literacy. He has earned a reputation for getting a lot of work out of students. Lots of reading and lots of writing everyday, no excuses thank you! He also is known for giving to students. On numerous occasions he has volunteered to help supervise at socials and he has given two tours of duty in the computer lab during Lock-Ins this year. He also is one of those teachers most likely to nominate students for Es in Success Orientations and Student of the Quintile. He definitely sees the glass as half full – not half empty. He will be moving on to Shanghai next year, but he will be leaving behind memories of his service and faith in students. Thank you, Mr. Heeg.

Age Level Information Night

Emma and Alitza sang a song from their part in the Wizard of Oz for assembly Wednesday. Their, beautiful voices sounded great even in the gym. The cast for the drama will be giving a sneak preview next week at the Age Level Info Night from 6:30 – 7:00. Most of the cast will be performing in the short sketches from early in the play. Along with the drama the night will feature a plethora of extra-curricular activities including Basketball, Music, Art, Cooking, Dragon Mentors, a MOODLE presentation and some class activities such as: Jeopardy student vs. parents, a Living Wax Museum, and videos of Original Student Legends from cultural studies, Dance and some special Science Projects. And this is only from the 12 and 13 classes. Please drop by for a jam packed hour highlighting QSI programs in Middle School and homeroom class presentations.

25 QSI students were honored for their writing Wednesday. Claire, Alitza, Ido, Taj, Sato and Meg were all won age level awards from 1st -3rd place for their writing. Congratulations to all and thanks to the Young Writers for their generous awards! Taj and Alitza were the first place winners in their categories.

Ready to Play

Mr. Haigh brought the Advanced Band to perform a Contredance for the Assembly this week. The student body was impressed with the obvious skill level of this group (which meets on Monday afternoons) and responded with loud applause. The Spring Concert comes May 31 so these extra performances mean a lot to the readiness of these music groups.

10 Year Old Lock-In

year old teachers supervising different

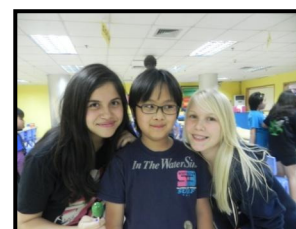

From 7:00PM to 8:00 AM the morning the vast majority of year old class met at school to fun. With Mr. DeWitt, Mr. Woodhead (gym), Mrs. DeWitt (room), Mr. Heeg (Computers) and hanging out with them, the 10s played through the late hours until finally winding down around 1:00 in the morning. Fortunately the teachers were reinforced with a great band of selected students from the 12 and 13 year old classes to provide the energy and manpower to handle that much fun. Serving food, playing games, cleaning up and supervising these students earned up to 13 hours of credit. The 10s were awesome!
